

GRAY DRYDEN SCHOLARSHIP FOR CONTINUED POST-SECONDARY EDUCATION AND GRADUATE STUDIES

The Gray Dryden Scholarship is being awarded by the Milton & District club of the Canadian Federation of University Women (CFUW) to three (3) women continuing their post-secondary education (who have already completed one, full year) at an accredited university, college or trade school. Established in honour of two of our influential, esteemed, long-time members, Margaret Gray and the late Gwen Dryden, the 100th Anniversary Scholarship is to be awarded in 2019. One scholarship will be awarded in the amount of $5,000 in each area of Healthcare, Education and STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics).

Applicants must demonstrate academic achievement, and outstanding leadership and citizenship qualities both in school and the community. Candidates must have direct ties to Milton, Ontario: live(d) in Milton or attend(ed) a school in Milton & District. In addition to the sections below, applicants may append a current CV. Where space is limited, provide all responses on a separate page using the following or similar format.
